Notes

- As a member of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the Company. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes.
- Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the AGM and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the AGM in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
- A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company. If you wish to appoint a proxy other than the Chairman, strike out the words "the Chairman of the Meeting or" and insert in the space provided the name of your proxy. If you sign and return this proxy form with no name inserted in the box, the Chairman of the Meeting will be deemed to be your proxy. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the AGM and are aware of your voting intentions.
- If you wish your proxy to cast your votes for or against a resolution, you may insert an "X" in the appropriate box. If you do not wish your proxy to vote on any particular resolution, you may insert an "X" in the "Vote withheld" box. A "Vote withheld" is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of votes "For" and "Against" a resolution. If you do not indicate how your proxy is to vote, you will be deemed to have authorised your proxy to vote or to withhold your vote as your proxy thinks fit. Your proxy will also be entitled to vote at his or her discretion on any other resolution properly put to the AGM.
- To appoint a proxy using this form, the form must be:
 - completed and signed;
 - sent or delivered to Neville Registrars, Neville House, 18 Laurel Lane, Halesowen B63 3DA; and
 - received by Neville Registrars no later than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the time of the AGM.
- In the case of a member which is a company, this proxy form must be executed under its common seal or signed on its behalf by an officer of the company or an attorney for the company.
- Any power of attorney or any other authority under which this proxy form is signed (or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) must be included with the proxy form.
- In the case of joint holders, the signature of any one holder will be sufficient but the names of all the joint holders should be stated. The vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. Seniority will be determined by the order in which the names appear in the register of members in respect of the joint holding.
- If you submit more than one valid proxy appointment, the appointment received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.
- CREST members who wish to appoint or instruct a proxy or proxies by using the CREST electronic appointment service may do so by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual. Please see the notes to the accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting for further information on proxy appointment through CREST.
